

I am a new XM satellite radio owner and love the service. Paying a monthly fee is well worth avoiding all the chatter on commercial AM and FM radio. I question why there is any consideration limiting the information XM radio is able to provide a consumer. Local weather information benefits the consumer as it would allow instant accessibility on XM radio.

Please do not limit XM radio or be influenced by special interest groups.

Sincerely

Mark Sieber